

Film: The Rock

The Rock is an outstanding, enjoyable and insightful Christian movie for all ages particularly youth. This film also has many humorous moments which helps communicate the biblical message of Luke 19:40 – “I tell you,” he replied, “if they keep quiet, the stones will cry out”.

I would recommend this film for all Christian youth because it helpfully reflects on the challenges of living out Christian faith in this modern world. This film also helpfully reflects on the persecution that can happen when we become bolder in our faith. Both the film’s serious and more light-hearted moments helped convey this message.

I could easily relate to the many everyday characters in the film and found that its main message challenged me personally. I would recommend this movie to all Christian youth who want to be more open about their faith in Jesus but feel scared to do so. I also recommend this as an excellent resource for all youth ministers who want to equip, encourage and educate their youth about being a disciple of Jesus.
